Include one of the profilers, **** Barker and his son.

00:00:06Speaker 1

I know they're going to name one of the music to the stage.

00:00:08Speaker 1

I think that's also going to bring out some information about my ancestral home of Ireland and it's music and potential travel here, but please make them very welcome.

00:00:26Speaker 1

Thank you Hank.

00:00:29Speaker 1

Yes, and at the very very first that we had there were three of us there that night and it was Bill and myself and my son Eric was at the very first one.

00:00:40Speaker 1

So it's it's nice to have him back down.

00:00:47Speaker 1

We took a trip.

00:00:49Speaker 1

Mother that there was five of us from Jacksonville last at the end of April early.

00:00:56Speaker 1

No, it was in May all in May excuse me, but we we went to Ireland with a group that was.

00:01:03Speaker 1

Folk singer who?

00:01:04Speaker 1

Has performed here in the past back in 93 and 94.

00:01:10Speaker 1

By the name of John Smith and.

00:01:13Speaker 1

He needs tours to.

00:01:15 Speaker 1

Iron we signed up and we went, and so Barbara and I Lowell and Irene million and Connors.

00:01:26 Speaker 1

We all went and there were eighteen of us on the tour we had.

00:01:29 Speaker 1

A wonderful time.

00:01:32 Speaker 1

We went through a lot of the places where.

00:01:35 Speaker 1

Tours normally go old antiquities of beautiful areas out to the Iron Islands.

00:01:41 Speaker 1

It was a wonderful tour.

00:01:43 Speaker 1

We were in.

00:01:43 Speaker 1

The southwest island.

00:01:45 Speaker 1

But at night we go to pubs, have dinner and listen to the most wonderful.

00:01:52 Speaker 1

Music you can imagine.

00:01:57 Speaker 1

Lucy doesn't start there until 10:00 o'clock, so the.

00:02:02 Speaker 1

Nights were short.

00:02:04 Speaker 1

But we we enjoyed it so much that we are making plans with the same Tour Company to go back this summer and I think it's around the 28th or so of April and through the 1st week of May and.

00:02:24 Speaker 1

And we're hoping that we can feel this our 20 or 22 slots with people who either play here or as audience. When you come, it's really.

00:02:37 Speaker 1

And I'm going to be taking off right after we do this song.

00:02:43 Speaker 1

Another commitment.

00:02:44 Speaker 1

But we know and mobilian has information on this.

00:02:51 Speaker 1

We can talk to him, we both require.

00:02:58 Speaker 1

Financially, making the obligation if you want to go.

00:03:02 Speaker 1

But let me just tell you, it's a wonderful, wonderful experience and I hope that some of you will join us while.

00:03:11 Speaker 1

We were over there.

00:03:13 Speaker 1

So many thoughts.

00:03:13 Speaker 1

I heard a song of it, it it was.

00:03:18 Speaker 1

That was so nicely there.

00:03:21 Speaker 1

We're going to try to.

00:03:22 Speaker 1

Repeat that this is a song that on the BBC, one of their programs on the radio.

00:03:30 Speaker 1

Just a couple of.

00:03:31 Speaker 1

Weeks ago I live in and they used this song as an.

00:03:34 Speaker 1

Example, it's an.

00:03:35 Speaker 1

Old protest song.

00:03:38 Speaker 1

This was under the British rule of Ireland.

00:03:47 Speaker 1

They said that this song is over 200.

00:03:49 Speaker 1

And 50 years old.

00:03:51 Speaker 1

It's a song that I.

00:03:52 Speaker 1

First heard from Bill Graves back around 1957 under the bridge at the O.

00:03:58 Speaker 1

T John tea parties.

00:04:00 Speaker 1

So everything we're going.

00:04:02 Speaker 1

To do this song.

00:04:06 Speaker 1

As I went up walking.

00:04:18 Speaker 1

He was held.

00:04:26 Speaker 1

I would rather stand.

00:04:33 Speaker 1

And you.

00:04:58 Speaker 1

Those shiny little coins so it looked.

00:05:04 Speaker 1

I picked up the money.

00:05:17 Speaker 1

With the Devils in the women, they never can rest easy.

00:05:28 Speaker 1

Wack wack

00:05:43 Speaker 1

Was between 6:00 and seven, the guard members all believing I reached 4.

00:05:57 Speaker 1

I will.

00:06:04 Speaker 1

It was taken.

00:06:31 Speaker 1

Damn killed Gary, but they didn't take with this down.

00:06:41 Speaker 1

I think there will be.

00:06:47 Speaker 1

With your reader.

00:06:51 Speaker

Right?

00:07:02 Speaker 1

Now so cake delight.

00:07:06 Speaker 1

Is she?

00:07:16 Speaker 1

I take the life in the ladies in the morning.
